

Michelle Brooks, M.A., N.C.C.

Michelle Brooks is the Coordinator of Training and Evaluations for Eden Family of Services. She has worked in the field of autism for 20 years and was the senior editor and primary contributor of the Eden Institute Curriculum Series. Ms. Brooks experiences include practical application of applied behavior analysis, consultation and assessment. Ms. Brooks has presented at both the state and national level on various topics including ABA Teaching strategies for students with autism, effective teaching and inclusion strategies for students with Asperger's and increasing social skill development in students with pervasive developmental disorders. Ms. Brooks obtained her Master of Arts Degree in School Counseling from Rider University and is a National Certified Counselor.

Eden Outreach
2031 Old Trenton Road
West Windsor, NJ 08550
609-426-8656
www.edenoutreach.org